

Bring the world into your school with global learning CPD

Connecting Classrooms through Global Learning

Contact us to organise free training in your school, cluster or MAT, or book on one of our public or diocesan courses.

- Inspire students with the knowledge, skills and attitudes to be active global citizens and leaders.
- Support school's reflection on the new Ofsted and Section 48 requirements for an ambitious curriculum.
- Enrich your curriculum through care for our common home and engagement with the Sustainable Development Goals.
- Receive ongoing support to implement global learning and demonstrate impact in your classroom.

Choose from four inspiring courses!

“It was brilliant. A day packed with information and practical strategies. Simple and powerful ideas. Great resources.”

Four inspiring courses to choose from:

PRIMARY AND SECONDARY

'Everything is connected': Enrich school life through global learning

Revitalise your curriculum! Explore connections and interdependence with our global neighbours and our shared planet, our common home. Be equipped with new tools and strategies to help you implement global learning throughout the curriculum and inspire your students to make a positive contribution to the world.

For primary and secondary teachers, SLT and aspiring leaders.

Connecting to the world: successful school linking

Thinking about linking with a school overseas? Explore key principles for mutually beneficial school partnerships that reflect your school's ethos and values. Be inspired by CAFOD's model of partnership working.

For primary and secondary teachers, SLT and aspiring leaders.

SECONDARY

Bring the world into your Catholic RE classroom

Connect your KS3 Religious Education curriculum with our common home and the Sustainable Development Goals through the perspectives and experiences of our global neighbours. Discover strategies that engage with sources of wisdom and authority.

For KS3 RE teachers with a Catholic focus.

Young leadership for global justice

Challenge your students to become aspiring leaders by reflecting on their responsibility towards others and the planet. Deepen their understanding of global justice issues and empower them to run social action projects. Two days of training will support you in setting up a young leadership programme in your school.

For secondary teachers, school chaplains and aspiring leaders.

Connecting Classrooms through Global Learning is the perfect place to develop your school's global learning journey. Book your place on one of our courses now or contact us to organise training within your school or cluster.
