The Board of Directors will consist of MAC Directors who have a good mix of knowledge, experience and skills. All MAC Directors must abide by the Seven Principles of Public Life enunciated by the Nolan Committee, which are: Selflessness Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. Integrity Holders of public office should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organisations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their official duties. Objectivity In carrying out public business, including making public appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards and benefits, holders of public office should make choices on merit. Accountability Holders of public office are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public and must submit themselves to whatever scrutiny is appropriate to their office. Openness Holders of public office should be as open as possible about all decisions and actions that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider public interest clearly demands. Honesty Holders of public office have a duty to declare any private interests relating to their public duties and to take steps to resolve any conflicts arising in a way that protects public interest. Leadership Holders of public office should promote and support these principles by leadership and example. The DES provides Role Descriptions for Directors which can be accessed from the website at https://www.bdes.org.uk/new-academies.html Please read these prior to applying in order to understand the role further .
HOW THE INFORMATION ON THIS FORM WILL BE HANDLED BY THE ARCHDIOCESE OF BIRMINGHAM
We need the information we have asked for on this form:

- To comply with our legal obligations and/or
- Because it is in our legitimate interests to obtain it when appointing you to your role and/or
- In relation to religion, as you are a practising Catholic, because ensuring proper governance of Archdiocesan schools by practising Catholics is one of the legitimate activities of the Archdiocese and/or
- In relation to information about criminal matters, to exercise, establish or defend our legal rights, and to prevent or detect unlawful acts.

We inform the Clerk to the Board of Directors of your name, address, telephone number(s), email address, occupation and the dates of your term of office. We would also, if requested by the school, share that information with the school. We will not disclose your information to any other body unless we are required by law to do so.

Your information will be kept securely by us, either in paper or electronic form. You can find out more from our Privacy notice, which is available at <https://birminghamdiocese.org.uk/privacy-policy>.

If you are appointed, we will keep your completed form(s) until the end of the academic year after the academic year in which you cease your role. We hold on to it for that time because sometimes a person decides to continue in their role after they have resigned, or their term has come to an end.

If you are not appointed, we will keep your completed form until the end of the academic year after the academic year in which you complete it. This is because in our experience there is sometimes a delay between application and appointment.

You can update your information at any time by writing to the DES or emailing r.tonks@bdes.org.uk.

When we destroy documents or electronic files we do so securely.

We also compile and keep for 75 years a document which contains your name, address, telephone number(s), email address, occupation and dates of your term(s) of office. We do this because we have experience of people coming forward with concerns or queries many decades after an incident is said to have occurred. This basic information will help us to respond in an informed manner to any concerns raised.
