

CARDINAL NEWMAN
CATHOLIC SCHOOL

1504 (with 255 in the Sixth Form)

Head of RE
(with the potential for whole school responsibilities)

Full Time - Main Professional Scale plus TLR 1C £12,724

Required: Easter 2024

The Governors are seeking to appoint a practising Catholic who is a dynamic and inspirational Head of RE who will lead an 'outstanding' RE Department (Section 48 inspection March 2022).

We welcome applications from candidates currently in similar roles or aspiring middle leaders. The successful candidates will benefit from the support and line management of an Assistant Headteacher with previous RE Department leadership and a successful track record.

This is an exciting time for Cardinal Newman as we prepare for the development of a brand new school opening in January 2026. You will also be joining the school as we celebrate a progress score of +0.51 (2023) and will join a staff body who support the school motto "We are all made for greatness."

The school has an excellent reputation, built on strong and longstanding relationships with the local community and beyond. We are a Beacon Peace School and achieved outstanding in all categories in the Section 48 Inspection report. Comments include:

"Pupils know whom to go to if there is a problem, and they value the strong community spirit. They speak of solid relationships with their tutors and the extended community to which they belong, contributing to excellent behaviour."

The successful candidate will:

- Be a practising Catholic and a confidence witness to the faith and formation of others.
- with Have a passion for their subject.
- Have excellent relationships with students and a belief that everyone can succeed.
- Be a great team player and work with other key colleagues to support the development of teaching and learning within the department.
- Be able to teach all key stages.
- Be a skilful and committed practitioner, able to inspire pupils, manage a busy workload, be well organised, prepared to go the extra mile and love teaching.

Cardinal Newman School can offer:

- A well-motivated body of students.
- A friendly, enthusiastic and supportive staff.
- CPD programmes to support and develop teachers particularly for ECTs.
- A vibrant programme of extra-curricular activities, which broaden the experience of our students.
- A caring ethos with strong international links and a commitment to actively supporting global charity and fundraising projects.

Please refer to the person specification for eligibility for this post. Application packs are available via the school website www.cncs.school

Completed application forms should be sent to Suzanne Harris, Headteacher's PA
