The Board of Directors of the Newman Catholic Collegiate invites applications for the post of Vice Principal at St Margaret Ward Catholic Academy, Stoke-on-Trent.

This is a vital position in our successful secondary school, one which offers an excellent preparation for headship. Applicants must have exceptional leadership and management skills, be an outstanding classroom practitioner and have the interpersonal skills to drive an ethos of continual improvement towards and beyond excellent personal welfare, spiritual development and academic learning.

The successful candidate must be a practising Catholic in good standing with the Church and will demonstrate:-

- A clear vision and an understanding of the leadership of Catholic education.
- The ability to plan strategically in order to deliver the school's vision, ethos, priorities and targets.
- The skills to think strategically, analytically and creatively about learning and teaching.
- The inclination to remain positive and solution focused.
- High expectations and aspirations for young people, colleagues and parents.
- The commitment to continuous improvement of people and systems.
- A commitment to ensuring a safeguarding culture.
- The skills to work successfully as a team member establishing effective working relationships and flexible working practices.
- Experience of following direction, showing initiative and working in collaboration with colleagues, parents, pupils and the school community.

The successful candidate will be a leader who will relish the opportunity to join a talented and committed leadership team to transform a good Catholic school into a truly great, innovative and life-changing one.
