Cardinal Wiseman Catholic School is seeking to appoint an outstanding leader as its Deputy Headteacher in order to continue the school's journey of improvement to Outstanding. The school is situated in the Kingstanding area of Birmingham and draws pupils from areas with high social deprivation

The successful applicant will

- * Be a practising Catholic.
- * Have a proven record of successful leadership, a clear understanding and knowledge of a range of strategies and interventions which have secured improved outcomes for all pupils

- * Have an analytical, robust and strategic approach to school improvement.
- * Have the ability to motivate, engage and inspire staff, pupils and parents.
- * Be resilient and have strong interpersonal and communication skills.
- * Be aspirational and ambitious for all members of the school community.
- * Be able to raise the profile of the school within the wider community and its feeder schools.

The School offers:

- * A strong Catholic Community of Faith which embraces and values all faiths.
- * A leadership team committed to securing excellence for all students.
- * A staff team who are ambitious for students but at the same time are a supportive family.
- * Extremely well-behaved students who want to learn and be successful.
- * Supportive, experienced and hard-working Governors.

This is an exciting opportunity to lead a good school with the potential and desire to achieve outstanding outcomes in the future.
